Resume

The RM 890 is the smallest in the RM range. But it retains the best of its big brothers, with sleek lines, generous interior space and plenty of light. It is offered here in a twin-keel / single rudder version, so you can run aground without worry and take full advantage of the islands and rias of southern Brittany. It's a light boat, very seaworthy, easy to handle, even single-handed, fast and very pleasant to live with.

Inside, you'll find a shower room (with shower and hot water), a chart table and a fully equipped galley with fridge, gas cooker and oven. There's also a technical room aft on the starboard side where you can stow all the crew's bags and belongings.

The boat is semi-offshore equipped and can take you all the way to the Scilly Islands, along the coast of Brittany or to L'ile de Ré.
