Resume

The First 40 is a racing-cruising yacht, built by the Bénéteau shipyard in France. This bulb keel yacht, rigged as a fractional sloop, is 12.24 m long.

It meets the demands of comfort and safety of demanding yachtsmen.

Her large 1.60m diameter steering wheel offers good sensitivity. The deck plan allows easy circulation and manoeuvring. Access to the sea is facilitated by an open transom with removable beam.

Bright and well thought out, the interior of the First 40 is pleasant for both full and short crews.
